

Who's New at LifeOptions

LifeOption's commitment to providing our associates with superior service and the highest return on their Life Settlement transactions requires constant diligence and adherence to all aspects of compliant behavior. To insure we do not fall short of our commitment to you, and to best manage the increasing success of our company, we have recently expanded our senior staff to include a Chief Financial Officer and a Senior Case Manager. It is our pleasure to introduce you to them:

Thomas V. Hatzis Chief Financial Officer

The newest addition to the LifeOptions senior management team is Tom Hatzis, CFO. Tom's role is to rigorously apply the highest standards of fiscal management and compliance to every aspect of the company's operations.

Tom joined LifeOptions after two years at Pepperidge Farm, managing forecasting, customer insights and business performance. For seven years, Tom worked as a management consultant for RHI, a global consulting provider, on many corporate clients in roles covering reporting and finance, auditing and, analysis. Prior to RHI, Tom managed the financial and administrative aspects of Effective Security Systems' operations, a dominant provider of security services in the Northeast, for six years.

Tom received his B.S. from the University of Connecticut School of Engineering in Storrs, Connecticut, and his M.B.A. from the Graduate School of Business Administration in Storrs, Connecticut.

Karen E. Schob Senior Case Manager

As a seasoned financial services executive, Karen understands the critical role of case management. By applying her experience across a broad spectrum of complex managerial challenges, LifeOptions will continue to lead the industry in case preparation.

Karen is responsible for LifeOptions LLC's individual case management. From 2004 to 2007 Karen was an Assistant Vice President at Columbia Home Loans LLC overseeing their Secondary Marketing Department. She was instrumental in launching their product and pricing engine and managing the development of company wide guidelines.

Prior to Columbia Home Loans she was a Secondary Marketing Manager at Apreva Funding located in Washington State where she was responsible for pipeline and risk management.

Karen received her B.A. from Hofstra University in Hempstead, NY.
